My holiday

~~I personally like going abroad or just in another city on my holidays. I look for new places to come to. New places are new emotions and new experiences. But usually we stay in our city and don't go anywhere. I would really like to go to another country like England or Germany. That's my point of view and you can agree or disagree with it.~~

task 1

My holidays

Holidays are good for you because you can rest from your work or school or any other activities.

I personally like going travelling to other cities and countries on my holiday. I look for new places to come by. New places mean new emotions, people and experiences. But not always we can afford these kinds of trips. More often we stay at our country house. I would really like to travel to some other countries like Great Britain or Germany because they have a lot of nice and welcoming people. So that was my article about my holidays. Hope you enjoyed reading it.
